

Praise from the Judges!

《Grand Prize》

Kyoto, Life in a Poem

Applicant name : Doshisha MBA

- The image was beautiful, and the technical aspect of the production was of a high degree of perfection
- The charm of International student life in Kyoto, where culture and modernity coexist, was beautifully expressed in a poetic form.

《Second Prize》

Here is kyoto

Applicant name : 温 少杰 (オン ショウケツ)

- The shooting techniques and the professional-like production sense were distinguished. Besides, a rare scene that a tourist would not be able to see of monks praying was used, and in contrast, the lively scene of student life, such as lecture scene and interaction among students, was also well depicted.

《Special Judge's Award》

Feeling Kyoto

Applicant name : 劉 芸希 (リュウ ユンシ / Liu Yunhsi)

- The charm of Kyoto's four seasons was well expressed using animation. Also, each season incorporated a story.
- The female international student's narration communicates the feelings of international students in Kyoto well.

4 reasons why you "shouldn't" go to Kyoto to study

Applicant name : i-Tabi Team

- Expressing Kyoto's attraction with a negative title is unique.
- The music, sound effects, and voiceover all contributed to a cute video, enjoyable to watch.

Samurai's School Life

Applicant name : NDES0

- The movie shows us that Muslim communities, still few in Japan, exist in Kyoto, and the viewer can feel that Muslim international students actively study and enjoy living here.
- The videographer noticed the importance of diversity, and the charm, that many cultures, peoples, and religions are respected in Kyoto, was well expressed.